

How Do I File Electronically?

Nothing beats e-filing for easy, accurate filing and quick refunds. Choose one of the following to e-file your returns:

- Talk to your tax preparer
- Use commercial tax software or online sites
- Try our FREE online service at taxexpress.utah.gov

How Do I Get an Income Tax Booklet?

Because most people now file electronically, the Tax Commission no longer automatically mails the income tax forms to everyone. If you need forms or instructions, the following links will help:

- TC-40 Form – just the form
- TC-40 Packet – common forms and instructions, including TC-40
- All forms and publications

If you are unable to print the form or instructions yourself, please contact the following to receive a paper copy by mail:

Telephone: 801.297.6700

E-mail: taxforms@utah.gov

When requesting forms by email, include all of the following information:

1. Your name
2. Your complete address
3. The form names and numbers you need

Due Date

Due to the Emancipation Day holiday in Washington, D.C., state and federal income taxes for tax year 2011 are due on Tuesday, April 17, 2012.

New This Year

Combat Related Death Credit. This new credit applies to service members who were killed in or as a result of serving in a combat zone.

Recycling Market Development Zone Credit . The Legislature has reinstated this credit for the period July 1, 2010 through December 31, 2011.

Research Credit for Machinery and Equipment. This credit expired December 31, 2010. However, there is a carryover provision for excess credits from prior years.

Voluntary Contribution for Canine Body Armor. You may make a voluntary contribution to the canine body armor account.

All state income tax dollars fund education.